Base 16-17.3

Notebook bag with metal wire frame for extra safety

Base keeps your notebook well protected thanks to the cushioned notebook compartment that has a metal wire frame for extra safety. The notebook is kept in place inside the bag with the help of a notebook strap. Inside the bag there are also pockets for your accessories.

You can carry the bag in the comfortable neoprene handle or use the detachable shoulder strap. Base has a slip pocket for documents on the back and there is also a large front pocket for the things you want to have close at hand.
